Order:

The Associations/Unions representing employees have submitted several representations requesting to issue general orders for providing employment to the dependents of permanently disabled employees as per the provisions of Regulation-19 of APSEB Service Regulations.

2) In the CMDs conference held on 27.10.2010, the subject relating to providing employment to the dependents of permanently disabled employees as per the provisions of Regulation-19 of APSEB Service Regulations Part-III has been discussed and was agreed to consider those cases who became permanently disabled due to an accident or mishap while discharging his official duties like climbing of poles, maintenance of lines or equipment etc at site. Accordingly, APTRANSCO has issued orders vide T.O.O.(Addl. Secy.-Per) Ms.No.260, dt 05.02.10.

3) After careful consideration, the APEPDCL hereby orders that the dependents of the permanently disabled employees who became permanently disabled due to an accident or mishap while discharging his official duties like climbing of poles, maintenance of lines or equipment etc., at side shall be provided employment. The other terms and conditions stipulated for compassionate appointments shall be equally applicable for appointment in these cases also. Accidents occurring while going to and from office shall not be considered under this scheme.
