HR management would be inculcated in APEPDCL
CMD N. Gulzar

Visakhapatnam: Steps would be taken to improve Human Resource Management in the Eastern Power Distribution Company of AP Ltd (APEPDCL) and elaborate two-year training calendar would be formulated so that all the employees gets training, APEPDCL Chairman and Managing Director N Gulzar announced here today (7th April 2009). He attended performance excellence awards function on the occasion of 10th Formation Day celebrations held at VUDA children's Theater Siripuram here.

Gulzar maintained that the EPDCL should be made accident free and assured the employees that the activities like meetings and data collection would be reduced significantly. He promised that the facilities in every office would be improved and directed concerned officials to send estimates on the requirements like toilets and pure drinking water in every office. He directed the officials to close down old disciplinary cases as soon as possible and should be firm on the discipline in the company.

Speaking further, Gulzar termed the employees of the EPDCL as bottom of the Pyramid and praised the EPDCL is performing three to four times better than private companies even though the investment is less three to four times. However, he said that EPDCL should borrow good things from these companies and make the company more fruitful. APEPDCL's Directors V.Suryanarayana, H.Y.Dora, Y.Narayana, V.Krishna Murthy and CGM (O&CS) B.Ramesh Prasad among the present on the occasion.
